SCENE 3 — SENIORS' CAMPUS LIFE

ONE OF THE BIG KIDS

by Becky Barnum

Layout by Duane Lanoue

We finally make it to the top. It seems like just yesterday we were walking into this school as little fifth graders, looking up and admiring the big kids at the top. I remember how frightened I used to be, or how proud I was if someone that I knew up there would speak to me in front of my friends. Now that I am one of the big kids, it really doesn't seem to be such a big deal.

ENTER-STAFF

SCENE 1 — ADMINISTRATION

ON SECOND THOUGHT ... by Stephanie Wolkenstein

Imagine school without an administration. Many students would say "excellent!" without a second thought. However, the second thought is the one that matters. The rules and regulations are the way we learn. Although we may not always agree with them, the administrators do what they think is best for everyone.

HAVING IT WHERE IT COUNTS

I never knew how much it took to make a school system run until this year. Even now I know I don't understand even half of it. Our administrators work 25 hours a day, and they have to know all of the little details that make a school function. Those guys at the top have done a super job so far. We definitely have a concerned administration keeping the pride inside.

SCENE 2 — FACULTY & CURRICULUM

ALL FOR EDUCATION

Layout by Sherri Burkholder

Reading, writing and 'rithmetic. The three R's have been taught to us since kindergarden by the ever-present teacher. Sometimes the faculty seems to be taken for granted simply because they are always there. Without them all the buildings, administrators, and students in the world could not make a school. Mt. Everett has acquired some of the most dedicated teachers around, and they are continually working in the interest of education. The basis for outstanding instruction comes from the instructor, and in this area Mt. Everett has outdone itself.

SCENE 3 — PERSONNEL

“PERSONNELITY” BY SHERRI BURKHOLDER

Where else in the school can you find a smile all (well, almost all) of the time? Take a look around and you'll find one on any (well, almost any) personnel member's face. One of them never fails to bring comic relief to my day. They make you feel welcome whether it be in the office, health suite, or library. I certainly hope they never stop smiling, for that's what gives the personnel their "personnelity!"

Seventh grade — I guess it's what you'd call the beginning. It's junior high, the start of a lot of work, a tremendous amount of fun, and a great deal of growing up. You're almost in high school, so stick with it.

The eighth graders seem so far away from high school, but they only have one year to go. They seem like a room full of mouths not stopping. You have to remind them constantly of things to be done, but over all they are good children — sometimes.

TO FIT OR NOT TO FIT

by Tracey Hohman

Freshmen are searching for an identity. They are brand new to the high school scene, and they are striving to fit in. Fitting in is a difficult process — it's all a matter of trial and error. Eventually, however, the freshmen find a clique to click with.

SCENE 5 — JUNIORS

WARNING: YOU ARE NOT SENIORS — YET by Beth Seely

Layout by Sherri Burkholder

Juniors are the closest class to the seniors. We usually get along well, except when they need to be put in line. That is when they start thinking they are jr — seniors. The other day I had the yearbook camera, and a junior wanted to take a picture. My reply was, "You aren't a senior! Wait another year." Sometimes they just do not know how to please their elders.

It's hard to believe it's my last year in band. I remember my first year. The music was sooo hard! I didn't know what I was doing! But now it's easy — and a lot of fun. It's a great feeling being able to play a sheet of music and come up with a beautiful sound. I'm going to miss it next year.

SCENE 4 — PROM

HANDLING THE HASSLES by Sherri Burkholder

The prom — talk about hassles! One resort took our deposit, spent it, and refused to repay us when we backed out of the deal. The juniors made it through the pre-prom difficulties, and were able to put on a super prom. It was held at Butternut Basin, and really did turn out to be "A Time for Us." The only draw-back was that the time spent enjoying the prom seemed so short compared to the time spent preparing for it.

LADIES OF THE DIAMOND By Scott Thompson

I spent many evenings at the softball fields of Berkshire County in the Spring of '83, watching those ladies of the diamond. By far we have the classiest ladies around. Through all the pain and glory, dreams and disappointments, it was their composure and determination that gave our girls their competitive edge.

SCENE 2 — BASEBALL ANOTHER SEASON OF TRYING

Varsity's record shows no wins during the 1983 baseball season, but that does not mean that we did not put in the effort. It takes a lot more effort, courage, and staying power to continue when all those other teams have heavier bats.

Boys' soccer was a lot of fun to watch. Some days the boys are in bad spirits so they play messy. On the other hand, good days promote good plays. It was quite exciting to come to the last home game a few minutes late and find that Mt. Everett was winning! Even though we did not win a championship, our spirit was uplifted. YEA, EAGLES!

NEW ENGLAND KESWICK YOUTH BIBL

The girls' soccer team put a great deal of effort into their practices and games this year. Even though we are not the number one team in the fairly new sport, we do have the spirit. That's all that counts. It doesn't matter whether you win or lose, it's the way you play the game. The girls certainly played with their best effort this year.

SCENE 5 — CROSS COUNTRY

RUNNING FOR THEIR LIVES by Suzanne Bouthillette

Cross Country is one of Mt. Everett's better group activities. It is a sport in which a girl or a guy can participate and compete against not only other schools but against themselves as well — trying to push themselves that one extra mile, or to be a fraction faster today than yesterday.

Cheerleaders make the game. I know that nothing motivates a basketball player like encouragement from the stands. Then, when the crowd really is part of the game, the whole team is caught up in the spirit. We have a super squad at Mt. Everett which keeps all our games fun and full of "Eagle pride from down inside."

If I had a dime for every time I heard the comment, "We really have a good wrestling team this year!" I'd be wealthy. People are noticing that the wrestling team has been winning. With an overall league standing of second place it is a little hard not to notice. But then, what's the big deal? With all the individual talent on our team, what else could be expected? Our Eagles certainly pinned 'em this year!

EXIT CLASS OF

All this will not be finished in the first one hundred days.
Nor will it be finished in the first one thousand days,
nor in the life
of this Administration,
nor even perhaps
in our lifetime on this planet
But let us begin.

Inaugural Address
